Culture and Quality of Life was the topic of the September 11th Leadership Duncan session led by Kristen Arrington of Edward Jones and Shea Doughty of Stim-Lab. The group began at the Stephens County Historical Museum with a tour hosted by Cova Williams. Class XXIII then went to the 905 Museum and heard overviews of the Crapemyrtle and Pedestrian Trails Projects from Jeannie Bowden of the Duncan Enhancement Trust Authority (DETA). The Kiwanis updated everyone on Kiddieland. After viewing the Foreman Prairie House, Main Street Duncan, and the Chisholm Trail Arts Council, the class then traveled to the Duncan Public Library. Class XXIII spent the rest of the day at the Chisholm Trail Heritage Center. With interactive activities encompassing both visual and performing arts, punctuated with a panel discussion of local events, as well as over 30 guest speakers from the community's civic, social and service clubs, the class gained a broad perspective of life in Duncan.

Leadership Duncan XXIII Politics Day Session will be October 9th. The next Leadership Duncan Steering Committee meeting will be October 22nd.
